Boys & Girls Clubs of Snohomish County

As the parent who has enrolled my child into the Boys & Girls Club, I understand that the second biological or adoptive parent may make additions to this form, including the pick up authorization list, and may make decisions for the child. This does not include those with a court ordered restraining order.

Custody Issues

While we understand that parenting plans and custody issues are very important to both parents, the Boys & Girls Clubs of Snohomish County is not a party to any custody orders and we are not able to enforce parenting plans.

Unless there is a current court issued restraining order on file at the Club, both parents may pick up the child, regardless of the custody agreement. Disagreements between parents must be addressed off site. Please make sure that you have clearly established expectations between parents.

We do honor restraining orders and protection orders if provided to us and will enlist help from law enforcement if needed.
